L'ABRI CONFERENCE

RETHINKING SPIRITUALITY

WHAT DOES IT REALLY MEAN TO BE "SPIRITUAL"?

Spirituality is a concept that different people fill with very different content. What does it really mean to be "spiritual"? Does it mean being other-worldly or connecting with something unusual? Is it to perform specific rituals or to speak a religious insider language? Or is it just a synonym for being "deep"?

This L'Abri conference invites us to rethink what it means to be spiritual and to live into a more comprehensive spirituality.

SPEAKERS AND TOPICS

Thorsten Marbach L'Abri worker
Spirituality wide and deep

What is "spiritual"? There are many different answers on offer, inside and outside the church. The Bible's answer might surprise us – even those inside the church.

Sibusiso Mdluli Pastor, lecturer
Christian spirituality and African identity

When Christian spirituality meets African identity, what happens? Does one need to be reduced to accommodate the other? How can we be true to both?

Themba Gamedze Actuary, executive, author
The spirituality of Jesus

Exploring the spirituality that Jesus models, teaches and lives, and how he invites us into the kind of spirituality we have all been yearning for.

Vera Marbach L'Abri worker
Can we find God in all things?

God is not all things, but God is the God of all things. This has profound implications for our spirituality.

There will be a small booktable at the event – bring some spare cash just in case.

L'Abri Fellowship was founded almost 70 years ago by Francis & Edith Schaeffer to provide an environment where Christians and non-Christians can seek answers to questions about God, life and reality. Following in this tradition, a L'Abri Conference is an opportunity to engage our hearts and minds on issues that matter, with good opportunity for questions and discussion. Participate in this conference expecting to be challenged, enriched and encouraged.
